

SERVE THE PEOPLE

Making Asian America in the Long Sixties

Dr. Karen L. Ishizuka

SATURDAY

NOVEMBER 4, 2017

Author's Book Talk

with Dr. Ishizuka, author of Serve the People: Making Asian America in the Long Sixties – Dr. Ishizuka is an award-winning documentary film producer, museum curator, and author. Explore how Sansei (third generation Japanese Americans) activists created a nation-wide Asian American youth movement in the early 1970s.

1:00 to 2:30 PM

Japanese American Museum of San Jose
535 N. Fifth Street, San Jose, CA 95112

"Feed the People" Reception

with food, music, discussion, a book signing by Dr. Ishizuka – and a chance to share stories and learn how Sansei activists created Yu-Ai Kai and other community organizations.

3:00 to 5:30 PM

(Doors open at 2:30 PM)

Yu-Ai Kai Japanese American Community Senior Service
588 N. Fourth Street
San Jose, CA 95112

To purchase
tickets and see ticket discounts:
www.jamsj.org (see events, "Serve the People")

LIMITED SEATING!	General Admission
Author Book Talk Only	$8
Reception Only	$15
Both (Author Talk and Reception)	$20
After 10/30 or at the door (Both Events)	$30
	Discounts for seniors, students with valid ID, and JAMsj members!

Book sales/signings at both events

For more information contact Tom Izu at izutom@deanza.edu

Sponsored by the Japanese American Museum of San Jose, Yu-Ai Kai Japanese American Community Senior Service, and J-Town Community TV with support from the New Generation Nikkei Fund and the California History Center Foundation at De Anza College