	Enrollment
II. A	Enrollment Trends	What changes in enrollment have you seen in the last three years? Refer to https://www.deanza.edu/ir/program-review.20-21/index.html or access within the program review tool. You do not need to list enrollments; rather reflect on enrollment trends. What strategies does your department have in place to increase or maintain current enrollment trends?	Italian : Looking at the data, we can notice that we had an initial increase in enrollment during the pandemic. High School students and out-of-area students increased in number showing that the online modality helped in the increase the enrollment. To keep the enrollment, we plan to keep offering flexibility and diversify instructional modalities (Hybrid, Full Online synchronous, In-person meetings). Sign Language: https://deanza.edu/ir/program-review.20-21/documents/SIGN.pdf Prior to the Covid-19 pandemic, enrollment for ASL classes were full. The goals for taking the class varied between students (foreign language requirement, teachers communicating with Deaf students, ASL Interpreter). When the pandemic hit, the enrollment decreased however, once classes were established via zoom this increased the enrollment slightly. Now going into the 3rd year of the pandemic, enrollment has continued to increase. Most students now are seeking to take the class in order to fulfill University requirements. German: Increased enrollment during the two years of the pandemic. Online classes have enabled us to reach students from all over California, the US in general, and abroad. There are only a few German programs at community colleges and high schools available in California and students have enrolled at De Anza College just to take German. Regarding the group of high school students: We have had an increasing enrollment of high school students in German classes during the pandemic. While some of them (not all) live in the vicinity of De Anza College, many of them have a busy schedule (e.g. sports) after school

		and are only able to take our German class because it has been online. To maintain high enrollment numbers, we plan to continue with online synchronous classes and possibly hybrid classes in the future. High gas prices and traffic in our area make it usually difficult for many students to come to campus in person. The online classes during the pandemic enabled them to take German. Additionally, our evening schedule enabled working students to take German classes. French : <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● The enrollment in my classes increased significantly when De Anza gave students the option to attend remotely.</li><li>● New enrollment of students from distant geographical locations was also notable.</li><li>● Working students that had schedule conflicts before, now have the ability to attend class from their place of work.</li></ul> Spanish: Sharp decrease of 30% in enrollment from 2018-19 to 2019-20. Minor increase of 3% into 2020-21. (% based on unduplicated headcount) Enrollment during the pandemic peaked in Fall 2020, Winter 2021 and Spring 2021. Our synchronous online classes attracted many students from four-year schools (within CA and out of state), working professionals, and existing students who were working remotely and/or on site (e.g., taking class during lunch break). Our late afternoon and evening classes became popular among dual enrollment high school students. In Fall 2021, the Spanish Department lost full-time instructor Kimberly Vinall to resignation. Two adjunct faculty were hired to teach SPAN 1 via 50% synchronous / 50% TBA delivery, and those two sections were very highly enrolled. Evening classes taught in fully synchronous mode have also experienced strong enrollment, resulting in a SPAN 1 / SPAN 2 cohort that will hopefully continue to SPAN 3 in Fall 2022. In comparison,
--	--	---

			classes taught M-F in morning and M/W or T/Th in early to mid-afternoon have experienced much lesser enrollment: this trend has continued into Winter/Spring 2022. Strategies to increase/maintain enrollment: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Resume summer offerings of SPAN 1 (2022).</li><li>1. Diversify delivery modes of instruction from Fall 2022 onwards, adding 2x per week hybrid options that meet 50% on campus &amp; 50% synchronously online. Continue to offer 50% synchronous ~ 50% TBA sections in early to mid-afternoon, as well as more evening sections in fully synchronous mode.</li><li>1. Recruit current and incoming students to pursue the new Certificate of Achievement in Spanish, effective Fall 2022.</li><li>2. Develop recruiting efforts to reach out to high school students from San José for dual enrollment in our courses.</li></ol> Korean Although it is difficult to determine the trend due to the fluctuation of the number of courses offered over the past three years, the data suggests that there is an increase in the enrollment. More specifically, there is a sharp increase of 39% of enrollment from 2019-2020 to 2020-2021 thanks to the increased number of courses (8 to 12 courses) and the new course delivery method (e.g. synchronous online course). During the pandemic period, the students with diverse backgrounds ranging from a high school, out of California and overseas,
--	--	--	---

		to the general public interested in learning new languages and cultures while staying at home during the lock-down were able to enroll in the course. In particular, there is a significant increase of 10% enrollment of high school students during the pandemic period. The synchronous online classes in the evening and the global phenomena of K-pop appealed to many young students who are 19 or less in age group. Strategies to increase/maintain enrollment <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Resume summer course</li><li>2. Continue to offer evening sections fully online for those who have time conflicts with other classes (e.g. high school students and the college students from other schools where they don't offer Korean classes)</li><li>3. Recruit more high school students by reaching out to the counselors of high schools directly to raise the awareness of the availability of the Korean classes in De Anza.</li><li>4. Offer an intermediate Korean course for those students who pursue a high level of classes</li></ol> Russian: The enrollment trends for the past 2 years were very optimistic as learning in live-stream mode allowed students to sign up for classes from different parts of California and even from different states. More high-school students took De Anza language courses as the college luckily enough permitted 9th and 10th graders to take college-level classes. All categories of students including those, who work full-time, got an opportunity to watch recordings for the missing classes and therefore, increased the chances of non-

			dropping a course because of poor or non-attendance. Strategies to increase and maintain enrollment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Keep livestream and hybrid course offerings</li> <li>· Recruit more high school students from grades 9 through 12th who need language GE requirements.</li> </ul> Hindi: Continue to offer evening sections fully online for those who have time conflicts with other classes (e.g. high school students and the college students from other schools where they don't offer Hindi classes).
II. B.	Enrollment Trends for disproportionately impacted student groups	Using the program review data tool, what is the enrollment of African American, Latinx, Filipinx, and Pacific Islander students as a percentage of your entire program compared to other student groups in campus-wide percentages? You do not need to list enrollments, but rather reflect on what the trends look like. Link to equity plan and strategic plans <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What could be contributing to the differences?</li> <li>2. What strategies does your department have in place to increase or maintain enrollment of these student groups?</li> </ol> Are there other trends that you see when drilling into the data that may be important to explore?	Italian: In our classes, we have a large representation of Latinx. The similarity in the language and the cultural connection could be the major reason that drives that particular interest. Unfortunately, they are also the most vulnerable students when we consider the retention rate. We plan to collaborate more and more with Student Success Center having tutors in class that can help with this group. We also are going to collaborate with Early Alert to be more proactive in supporting students' needs. Sign Language: German: The number of enrolled African American, Latinx, Filipinx, and Pacific Islander students fluctuates from year to year in German classes but particularly Pacific Islanders and African American students are underrepresented. However, the success rate of these student groups has noticeably increased during the last 2 years. The German program aims at keeping this trend in the future, hoping to encourage more students of these groups to enroll.

-German perceived as a difficult language to learn./ German culture perceived as not relatable to the cultures of African American, Latinx, Filipinx, and Pacific Islander students.
Strategy: Include teaching modules about minorities in Germany (e.g. Afro-Germans) in German classes/ increased work with student success center/ tutoring/ visibility of German program at campus wide events (e.g. Recruitment or Enrollment Days)

French:

Observations:

- Comparatively low enrollment of African Americans, Filipinx, and Pacific Islander students.
- Significant enrollment of Latinx but low success rate and high withdrawals.

Possible causes :

- High absenteeism (very often students have to juggle between school and their jobs – they are left with little time to study if they have to work)

Suggested solutions/ strategy:

- Help them manage their time better by referring them to our Tutoring Center before they start the class.
- Build a network of support from peers.
- Encourage use of recorded lessons in Canvas in case of absence.

Spanish:

Disproportionately impacted student groups (as a whole): Throughout the three years in question, these groups have made up 50% of our entire program. Compare to College 34% (2018-19), 35% (2019-20), 36% (2020-21).

Breakdown by individual group (see details below). Our enrollment trends are nearly identical or identical to those of the College for all groups except for Latinx, which is 16% higher than the College for all three years. This is explained by the fact that many Latinx students feel a connection to their heritage language and enroll in our courses to gain confidence in academic skills such as reading and writing.

African American: 1% higher than College in 2018-19/2020-21. Equal to College in 2020-21.
Filipinx: Equal to College in 2018-19 and 2% lower than College in 2019-20/2020-21. Pacific Islander: Equal to College in 2020-21. 0% from 2018-2020 (c.f., College 1%).

Strategies to increase and maintain enrollment:

1. Use the Early Alert Program
1. Encourage students to pursue Certificate of Achievement in Spanish (effective Fall 2022)
1. Recruit current and former SPAN 1 students to continue into SPAN 2.
  2. Do the same with current and former SPAN 2 students, so that they continue into SPAN 3 (e.g., visiting classes taught by other instructors, sending emails via course rosters from previous quarters)
1. Find concrete ways to encourage students to use Spanish in meaningful ways outside the classroom, both within and beyond their various communities.

Korean

In general, there is an upward trend in the enrollment for Korean courses for disproportionately impacted student groups, including African American, Latinx, Filipinx, and Pacific Islander.

The data suggests there is an increase of 14% in the enrollment of these groups (from 16% to 30% of the entire groups) for the past three years, 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021. In detail, the enrollment of Filipinx increased 5% and Latinx 7%.

However, the enrollment of Asian groups has declined to 13% for the past three years. But the course success rate of Asian groups has improved 6%.

			Strategies to increase and maintain enrollment: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Encourage students to visit the Tutoring Center for extra-help and resources.</li> <li>2. Encourage students to pursue Certificate of Achievements in Korean.</li> <li>3. Use Early Alert Program.</li> <li>4. Hold cultural events to promote K-pop and connect the students with K-pop clubs in the campus.</li> </ol> Russian: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In general, African American, Filipinx, Native American, and Pacific Islander categories showed low enrollment. (Possibly due to cultural relevance)</li> <li>• A surprising number of Latinx enrollment (Possibly due to similar grammar and some cultural interest). Difficult to determine the individual success rate of the Latinx category because of combination of African American, Latinx, and Filipinx in one course success statistic</li> </ul>

More regular attendance has improved language skills of students. / Apps like Flipgrid allowed students to meaningfully engage with the instructor and each other at the students' own time schedule/ Students were more open to engage with the instructor before and after the online class because it was 'easy' to access the instructor on the screen. Strategies: Teach online class with: Offer increased availability of instructor online / use apps and technology that engage students meaningfully/ identify German tutor/ collaborate with Early Alert to be more proactive in supporting students' needs. French:  Observations:  Increase in student success rates from 2018-2019 to 2020-2021.  Possible causes :  Remote learning saves a lot of time that can be used to study.  Suggested solutions/ strategy:  Offering this kind of flexibility to students could help sustain a higher success rate. Spanish:  Success rate remained the same from 2018-19 to 2019-20 (77%) and decreased slightly to 75% in 2020-21. These numbers are lower than the College's (78%, 80%, 80%) but comparable to those of the IIS Division (74%, 77%, 77%). Factors that influence success rates: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. As mentioned earlier, 50% of our enrollment comes from disproportionately impacted groups.</li> <li>1. Commute/transportation issues hinder access to campus, where helpful resources are available (e.g., computer labs, Zoom rooms, WiFi, quiet spaces to study).</li> <li>1. Use Early Alert program</li> <li>2. Effective use of online office hours-let the students reach out to the instructor with any issues. --	--	--	--

2019-20:

- 1. -8% impact on low-income group. The impact at the College level was smaller (-5%) and the success rate higher (69% vs. 75%).
- 1. On the other hand, the College had negative impacts on three additional groups.

2020-21:

- 1. -8% impact on Latinx students, which is slightly better than at the College level (-9%), but our success rate (67%) was lower than the College's (70%).
- 1. -23% impact on our small sample of African American students (N=25 enrolled at census), who had a 52% success rate. At the IIS Division, the sample was much larger (N=405) and the impact was -13% (64% success rate). At the College level, it was -11% impact and a higher (69%) success rate.
- 1. The College had negative impacts on three additional groups: Pacific Islander (-10%), Latinx (-9%), and low-income students (-6%).

Most striking and worrisome is the constant decrease in success rate experienced by African American students from 2018 to 2021: 70% ~ 66% ~ 52%. While it is true that there was no disproportionate impact on 2018-19 or 2019-20, the impact on 2020-21 is of concern, although perhaps due to the very small sample (N=25 enrolled at census).

Strategies to closing gaps in successful course completion:

- 1. Use the Early Alert Program.
- 1. Create closer rapport with counselors in the Men of Color Community and other programs (e.g., EOPS, Athletics).
- 1. Get to personally know our African American students and encourage opportunities for camaraderie and collaboration with classmates.

Changes Imposed by Internal/ External Regulations	Address program changes implemented as a response to changes in College/District policy, state laws, division/department/program level requirements or external agencies regulations? How did the change(s) affect your program? (e.g. any curriculum, reorganization of program AB 705, noncredit curriculum, loss of personnel, etc.)-	All World Languages Departments (except Mandarin) continue to face the restrictions (imposed several years ago by the Viability Committee) of not being able to offer our second-year courses (levels 4-5-6). This discourages many students and causes some to pursue their coursework instead at Foothill College. We anticipate a very detrimental effect of AB928 on our enrollment once the GE Articulation Patterns come into effect and World Language transfer requirements get eliminated.
	Equity	In order to meet the goals within our State Equity Plan, Institutional Metrics, and Educational Master Plan , the following section asks you to reflect on questions focused on student equity to help inform our goals._	Unlocking the Equity Sections of the Program Review.pdf

We assign student mentors (when available) to work one-on-one with these students as well. Frequently we have students who qualify for accommodations and choose not to use them. In these cases, if the student is having trouble with the material, we make sure to follow up by encouraging them to reconsider. Sadly, more often than not, students respond that they don't need the accommodation for Spanish, and they end up failing the course.
