Variable Topics Courses+	See below

* Physical Education Courses – UC grants a maximum of six quarter units of credit for appropriate Physical Education Activity courses. These courses are not listed on the Transferable Course Agreement. P. E. Theory courses or courses that do not fit either the Theory or Activity category are not included in the six quarter unit limit prescribed for P. E. activity courses and continue to be listed on the TCA if deemed transferable. P. E. courses that are primarily vocational in nature, such as Aerobic Instructor, Training or Fire Academy Protection Preparation, are not transferable.

+ Variable Topics Courses –These courses are also called “Independent Studies,” “Special Studies,” “Special Topics,” “Internships,” “Fieldwork,” etc. Credit for variable topics courses is given only after a review of the scope and content of the course by the enrolling UC campus. This occurs after transfer and may require recommendations from faculty. Credits CANNOT be counted towards minimum admissions requirement.
